

ORIGINAL DUST. HIS PREDICTION.

The Ashes of Robert G. Ingersoll in a Beautiful Urn.

On One Side of the Funeral Urn is Inscribed "Robert G. Ingersoll," on the Other, "This Urn Holds the Dust; the Heart, the Memory."

NEW YORK, July 29.—The body of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll was cremated at Fresh Pond, L. I., Thursday. The body was placed in the retort at 11:30, and at 2 o'clock all that remained was ashes.

There were no services at the crematory. Even the organ, which is usually played while a cremation is going on, was silent. This was at the request of the family. There was a crowd about the building, and a number demanded admission, but no one except the members of the family and two members of the cremation society were admitted.

The body was removed from Walton soon after 9 o'clock and taken to the Dobbs Ferry station where a funeral car was waiting. The body was placed in the car and the members of the family also entered it. The body was inclosed in a black coffin, which was unrelieved by handles or plate. On the trip to the city Mrs. Ingersoll and the family sat about the bier and on the top of the coffin rested wreaths of roses and evergreens. The party reached the Fresh Pond crematory at 11:30 o'clock. The coffin was not opened in the columbarium. Those present stood around it for a few moments and then it was carried to the incinerating room. Mrs. Ingersoll bore up better than it was expected she would. When the retort had sufficiently cooled, the cradle was drawn out and the alum soaked sheet was opened. The ashes were then placed in the usual canister and then in the urn. Both were sealed and the urn taken in charge by the Ingersoll party. The return trip was then begun. Mrs. Ingersoll bore up well.

The funeral urn is a beautiful one, wound with laurel leaves and berries in bas relief and set with cypress leaves fashioned of green bronze. It is oval and set on a red porphyry base that rests on a brass plate. On one side is the simple inscription, "Robert G. Ingersoll."

On the other, in French, are the words: "This urn holds the dust; the heart, the memory."

DEWEY AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

President McKinley Will Give the Great Admiral a Reception When the Latter Arrives in Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—President McKinley will give a reception to Adm. Dewey at the white house when the latter arrives in Washington. At first he was in doubt whether a reception or dinner would be more appropriate, but the former is likely to be decided on for the reason that it would be more popular in character and would grant to a multitude of people an opportunity to meet the naval hero and shake hands with him.

The management of the reception will be very simple and will differ in no important respects from regular affairs of that character at the white house, except that the admiral will occupy a place in the line of the receiving party, the president coming first, Mrs. McKinley next and then the admiral, the introductions being made as usual by Col. Bingham.

THE PRESIDENT'S OUTING.

He Spent a Quiet Sunday and Remained at the Hotel—Weather Cool and Overcoats and Wraps in Demand.

HOTEL CHAMPLAIN, Clinton County, N. Y., July 31.—President McKinley did not attend church Sunday as he had intended to do, but instead remained at the hotel with Mrs. McKinley. Sunday morning he went for a long walk with his old friend, Commander Buckingham, of the navy, and after luncheon he went out for a short walk with Dr. Rixey. Mrs. McKinley continues to improve steadily. Sunday night the weather turned cold, the steam was turned on in every room in the hotel and overcoats and wraps were in demand.

Gen. Moscoso Says Uncle Sam Will Settle the San Domingo Trouble.

The United States About to Send a Naval Vessel to the Island to Protect the Interests of American Residents should Occasion arise.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Gen. Abelardo A. Moscoso, an exiled leader of the liberal party of San Domingo, now living in New York, says: "The death of President Heureaux will, I think, surely be followed by a long state of disorder and revolution. I want to emphasize this prophecy—that the United States will eventually be compelled to interfere to establish peace in the island, just as this country did in Cuba. I favor the policy of peace. I shall be glad to return to my country and support such a policy if it is inaugurated by Gen. Figueroa, the vice president, who succeeds to the head of the government. But if something is not quickly done to establish order and peace more revolutionary expeditions will follow, like that of Gen. Jimenez and Gen. Morales, who led a band from Cuba against Heureaux. There are now in this country Gen. Toribio Garcia and Edward Grullon, who share my views. We think that the United States ought to take an interest in our West Indian republic. It will be a great commercial ally. It lies between Cuba and Porto Rico. It must, of necessity, I believe, ultimately become attached to this country."

Gen. Moscoso has been in exile in New York for three years. He opposed the late president politically and had to flee to save his life.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—A naval vessel is to be sent immediately to San Domingo. Secretary Hay has made the request that Secretary Long take

SHAMROCK AS SHE WILL CROSS THE OCEAN.

The yacht Shamrock has left Rothesay bay for Greenock to complete fitting out for her voyage across the Atlantic, which will begin August 2. Sir Thomas Lipton, the owner of the challenger, says the crew of the Shamrock will be increased to 50. Capt. Hogarth, of the Shamrock, refused to express any opinion as to the yacht's chances for winning the cup, but said: "Tell the Americans not to lay odds."

this action, and the Machias, now at San Juan, Porto Rico, and only a few days' run from San Domingo, will proceed at once to that island. This is a measure of precaution rather than one of necessity at the present time, for Minister Powell has not suggested any such action to the government. Still, it is deemed well, in view of the press reports, indicating a disturbed condition of affairs, to have a representative of the United States authority within reach of the minister to protect American interests should the need arise. Minister Powell cabled the state department Friday morning from Port au Prince, Hayti, simply announcing the assassination of Heureaux by some unknown person between 1 and 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Wednesday.

Burial of President Heureaux.

THREE MET WATERY GRAVES

Sad Ending of a Small Pleasure Party on the Ohio River at Evansville, Ind.—Skiff Capsized.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 29.—August Mattingly, 17, Pearl Cheaney, 14, and Marion Onana, were drowned in the Ohio river in front of the city Friday night and three of their companions narrowly escaped. About 5 o'clock Friday afternoon Mattingly, in company with John Cheaney, Wm. Cheaney, Pearl Cheaney, of this city, and Misses Teresa and Marion Onana, of Henderson, Ky., started out for a hay ride and reaching the river at 7:30 o'clock, decided to take a skiff ride.

They were out about an hour when their boat was caught in the current and capsized in front of the mail line wharfboat. Fifty or more people were on the wharfboat, but none offered to go to the rescue. Mattingly, Pearl Cheaney and Marion Onana were rapidly swept down the current and nothing more was seen of them.

Their cries could be heard for blocks away. Wm. Cheaney seized Teresa Onana and reached the shore with her after a hard fight in the rapids. He says his life was saved by the headlight of the steamer Jewel in port which enabled him to see which way to swim. Teresa Onana sank in the water two times and when brought to shore by Cheaney, was unconscious. John Cheaney was swept under the hull of the steamer Jewel, but being a good diver and knowing the channel, was saved. Searching parties were along the river bank Friday night with torches trying to find the bodies of the lost. Late Friday night they had not been successful in their search. Expert divers will be employed Saturday morning.

Miss Marion Onana was one of the leading society belles of Henderson, Ky., and would have been married in a month.

SPIRITED FIGHT.

Insurgents, Who Had Been Driven From Calamba, Attacked Americans.

Americans Had Four Killed and Eleven Wounded—Calamba Was the Headquarters of Gen. Malbar—is a Strategic Point.

MANILA, July 28.—The insurgents who had been driven from Calamba Wednesday, returned Thursday and furiously attacked the American outposts. Several companies of 21st infantry and Washington volunteers sallied out of the town and again drove them to the hills, after a brisk fight.

A thousand picked men under Gen. Hall Wednesday captured Calamba, on the southwest shore of Laguna de Bay. The town was the headquarters of Gen. Malbar and the center of the insurgent telegraph system in southern Luzon. It was a most important strategic point.

Four hundred Washington volunteers, under Maj. Weisenberger, and a battery of the 1st artillery left Pasig Wednesday morning in caissons and launches, joining 450 regulars from the 1st infantry, under Capt. Eltenhead and 150 4th cavalrymen, under Capt. McGrath, from Morong.

The men were conveyed by gunboats to a point off South Talim Island.

It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon when the troops arrived off Calamba. The regulars led the way, the men of the 21st infantry and the 4th cavalrymen wading ashore in water neck deep to the north end of the town.

The insurgents lay quiet in their works till men had landed. Then they opened a brisk fire, but were quickly driven from their first position and across the river, which Capt. McGrath and Lieut. Bateman swam, securing boats for the cavalrymen, who then crossed and advanced through the town.

The 21st regulars, meantime, made their way through swamps to flank the enemy on his right, while the Washingtonians, flanked on the left, under cover of the Naplan's six-pounders and gatlings, landing on the south, but not rapidly enough to prevent a portion of the enemy from escaping.

The fighting continued three hours. Four dead and 11 wounded was the American loss.

LUETGERT DIES IN HIS CELL.

The Chicago Sausage Maker, Who Killed His Wife, Succumbs to Fatty Degeneration of the Heart.

JOLIET, Ill., July 28.—Adolph L. Luetgert, the wealthy Chicago sausage maker, who was serving a life sentence in the penitentiary here for the murder of his wife, was found dead in his cell Thursday.

Dr. Werner and O'Malley held a post-mortem examination. Dr. O'Malley says Luetgert died from fatty degeneration of the heart and that it was surprising considering its condition that death had not come long before this.

The trial of Luetgert in Chicago attracted wide attention and was one of the most sensational in the history of the state. Luetgert was charged with having murdered his wife in the basement of his factory, and cooked the body to pieces in a vat. The prosecution had but a few bones and two rings as evidence that their theory was correct, but secured conviction and a life sentence.

The city will be elaborately decorated for the occasion, and 5,000 American flags will be distributed among the people along the sidewalks.
